

New!

MEMBERSHIP BOOT CAMP

Save the date: Sunday, January 29, 2012 at Noon. CBJ will try a new program this year: MEMBERSHIP BOOT CAMP. This has nothing to do with buying new boots or even joining the army.

This will be one big open house at Beth Judea. It will give all congregants, both new and existing members, an opportunity to learn all about everything our congregation does and perhaps to get more involved. This will be for members of all ages. A complimentary lunch will be served.

We will have the following stations for you to visit:

Clergy: Talk to Rabbi and Hazzan about services, your upcoming simcha or life cycle events, getting involved in adult education, daily minyan or just to schmooze. Talk about your family and your background at CBJ.

Education: Meet with Anna Besser our Education Director and maybe some teachers to discuss the school, curriculum, any concerns or questions about your children's education at Beth Judea, or CBJ adult education offerings.

Office: Meet with Lisa Neiman and the office staff to discuss the operations of the synagogue; questions about dues; sponsoring a kiddish; scheduling an event; our facilities; advertising with us; helping with The Word; or any other questions or concerns.

Youth Dept. Meet Marc Sender our Youth Director and see how your children can get active in Kadinkers, Kadima or USY. Review subsidy for programs or scholarship availability for Israel Pilgrimage or summer programs.

Auxiliaries: Meet with the Men's Club, Sisterhood, Empty Nesters or Chavurah groups and see how you can improve your social or networking experiences.

Kitchen: Meet with our Kitchen Maven, Debbie Frager, and discuss how you can help in our kitchen, or sponsor a kiddish; or make a catered event at CBJ.

Committees: We have many committees to join and get more involved. Meet with our officers and committee chairpersons and learn what each committees does, when they meet, and how you can help out and get involved.

Please RSVP to the CBJ office (847-634-0777) so we have an idea of how much food to order. If you have any suggestions to enhance your experience, please let me know.

B'Shalom,

Rick Drazner,
CBJ President.
