THE GIFT OF ASHER LEV By Chaim Potok

20 years has passed & Asher Lev is a renowned artist living in France with his family but still unsure of his artistic direction. When Asher's beloved uncle passes away, Asher & his family return to Brooklyn & back to a world he thought he left behind. It's a story of confrontation & discovery as Asher purges his past in search of new inspiration for his art & begins to understand the true meaning of sacrifice & the painful joy in sharing the most precious gift of all.
