

High Holiday Review Tuesday, October 23rd at 8:00 pm

Dear Fellow Congregants, Clergy and Staff,

The 5779 High Holiday season began with Selichot and continued with Rosh Hashana, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret. The season ended this week with the lively observance of Simchat Torah. We completed the reading of the Torah and began the reading anew. While the cycle repeats itself as it has done for millennia, each of us greets this new beginning with another year of knowledge, hopes, dreams and realities.

I ask that each of you look back on these past High Holiday observances and share your experiences. It is with the help of these comments that we will plan our 5780 High Holidays. There are aspects that you found meaningful and areas that we might improve upon. Perhaps there are new ideas that would enhance our holidays.

Please attend minyan at 7:30 pm in the Robbins Sanctuary and the Review will immediately follow. If you are unable to be there in person, please email your comments to me at:

Whether you attend the Review or send in comments, your voice will be heard and considered. Thank you in advance for sharing your thoughts.

B'Shalom,
