Josh Warshawsky inspires and engages Jews across generations through music and teaching. Josh is a senior Rabbinical student at Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies in Los Angeles and is on the faculty of Songleader Boot Camp. Josh travels the country to lead and teach through music to camps, synagogues, and communities. Josh is an up-and-coming Jewish "rock star" and over the last six years has served as the musician in residence at USY's international convention. Josh is an alum of Rochelle Zell High School, Ramah Wisconsin, and Solomon Schechter.
