

OUR BOYS is the fourteenth documentary produced by Moriah Films. The film examines the events surrounding the kidnapping and murder of Gil-Ad Shaer, Naftali Fraenkel, and Eyal Yifrach, z"l, by Hamas terrorists in the summer of 2014. The parents of each boy recall their short lives and how this tragedy has impacted upon their families. Arab affairs analyst for Israeli television Ehud Ya'ari and author Yossi Klein Halevi discuss why the kidnapping and murder of the boys galvanized Israel and the Diaspora. The film then examines how the indiscriminate shelling of Israeli cities and towns from Gaza by Hamas, which followed the murders, resulted in the Gaza war and the greatest resurgence of anti-Semitism in Europe since the defeat of the Nazis in 1945.

our BOYS

Organized in conjunction with the Simon Wiesenthal Center

and

The Israel Committee - Congregation Beth Judea
5304 RFD, Long Grove, IL 60047

Thursday, November 16, 2017 @ 7:55 pm
this is a free event

Please RSVP by Monday, November 13 to Lisa Neiman at Ineiman@bethjudea.org

Please let us know what accommodations, including transportation, are needed for you to participate in our program. We will do our best to meet your need.