Tuesday Evening, May 30, 2017
7:00 pm

Join us for a night of study. At Shavuot we remember and re-enact the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai. The evening will be full of learning with the clergy from Congregation Beth Judea and learned guest teachers.

WEEKLY CLASSES:

These classes are ongoing. Please join at any time. Hebrew is not required for any of these classes, unless specifically noted.

Israel Matters

Taught by Hazzan Weisberg

Join Hazzan Weisberg in gaining a better understanding of the newest challenges and opportunities arising for Israel as well as its neighbors. What Jewish values and religious principles can be seen when Israel's leaders are dealing with the Palestinians, with the growing number of Islamic extremist groups, with the Arab world, with the greater international community?

Tuesday mornings after minyan (8:30 –9:15 am)

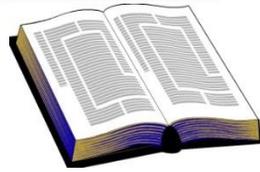

Diving Into Talmud: Grappling with Life, Law and Innovation

Taught by Orin Rotman

The Talmud is a profoundly rich compilation of wisdom that has continued relevance to our contemporary search for meaning. It addresses eternal questions of ethics, human nature and our relationship to the Divine. Participate in a lively discussion of the Talmud and its relevance for us today. No prior knowledge required and texts will be provided.

(Artsroll Schottenstein edition is used for the class)

Sunday mornings at 8 am

Sweet Taste of Torah: Psalms

Taught by Orin Rotman

For thousands of years Judaism has been interpreting and applying the Torah to everyday life. This class follows the Tanach cycle. Each week we will read through several chapters a week of the Nevim (Prophets) texts, then on to Ketuvim (Writings), then back to Torah again.

Wednesday evenings at 8 pm

SHABBAT CLASSES:

These Saturday morning classes are ongoing. Please join at any time. Hebrew is not required for any of these classes, unless specifically noted.
